

Legis^{strada}, Legis^{priva} and Legis^{duo}

Mobility and private legal protection

- › Our mobility and private legal protection insurance plans help you defend your interests when you are confronted with a case of litigation for which no amicable settlement can be found, including in the event of a road accident, a neighborhood dispute or legal action in your professional life.

Our mobility and private legal protection insurance plans include three alternatives that can be combined to suit your needs in order to help you better know and enforce your rights.

You will therefore avoid heavy legal expenses such as lawyer's fees or court and expert opinion costs.

Legis^{strada} mobility

Legis^{strada} defends your interests in the event of litigation relating to mobility and road traffic, for you as a driver, passenger in your own vehicle or in that of a third party, pedestrian, cyclist, horse rider or public or private transport user.

Legis^{priva} private

Whether you are an employee, a tenant, an owner or a consumer, Legis^{priva} coverage ensures that your rights are respected.

Legis^{duo} combined

L'assurance Legis^{duo} insurance combines the benefits of our Legis^{strada} and Legis^{priva} products.
